Classical Concert Sponsors 2002-2003

Recognizing the rich history and great strength of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, and the value of cultural exposure as a part of a comprehensive educational experience, generous contributions have been made to Rensselaer making possible an enriching musical interlude for the enjoyment of Rensselaer's students, faculty, staff, alumni and friends. The Rensselaer Union, in collaboration with the Office of the First Year Experience, is very proud to be hosting its 2002-2003 classical concert season on behalf of the following endowments, gifts and partnerships.

The Eleanore N. Fischbach Concert Series

Established in 1990, the Eleanore N. Fischbach Concert Series is an endowed fund established by the late Jerome Fischbach '38.

The Sylvia & Alexander Hassan '27 Concert Series

The Sylvia and Alexander Hassan '27 Concert Series is an endowed fund, established in 1998, by the Sylvia and Alexander Hassan Family Foundation, Inc.

The Kodosky Foundation Fund for Classical Music

The Kodosky Foundation has provided generous gifts since 1998 to the Rensselaer Union to support classical music programs for the students. The gift for the year 2000 provided funds for the restoration of the Union's Steinway piano. The Kodosky Foundation Fund for Classical Music was established as an endowment in 2001.

Complimentary Tickets

Free student tickets will be available one week prior to each concert at the Rensselaer Union Administration & Student Activities Office, located in the Union room 3702, for performances at the Troy Savings Bank Music Hall and Kiggins Hall at Emma Willard School.

Each student with a Rensselaer student ID may pick up two tickets, while supplies last.

Faculty and staff may sign up on a waiting list for each concert for any remaining tickets and will be notified within 8 business hours before each concert if there are available tickets.

The October 25 and April 6 Communiiversity Event concerts at the Troy Savings Bank Music Hall are free to all students, faculty, staff, alumni, and guests, but do require tickets. These tickets may be picked up on a first come, first serve basis.

For More Information

Call 276-6505, e-mail smithc@rpi.edu, or stop by the Union Administration & Student Activities Office.

Concert Etiquette

Every concert facility has its own rules to insure that all its patrons enjoy performances. In general, however, one should consider the following as a guideline:

- As a courtesy to performers and patrons, latecomers arriving after the concert has started will not be seated until an appropriate interval in the performance.
- All movement and conversation should be kept to a minimum during the performance.
- Patrons with electronic pagers and portable phones are requested to turn them off prior to the start of a performance. The hourly signals on electronic watches should also be silenced.
- Cameras and recording equipment are not allowed unless otherwise noted.
- Smoking is not permitted anywhere in the buildings.
- Refreshments may be available in a reception area; however, food and beverages of any type are not permitted anywhere in the concert halls.

The Troy Savings Bank Music Hall is located at the corner of Second and State Streets. Kiggins Hall at Emma Willard School is at 285 Pawling Avenue (Bus Route 80).
